Life at Questhaven

Dear Friends,

Welcoming the New Year's impulse to bring purposeful change, I smile as new life seems to be springing up all over the hillsides of Questhaven. The recent rains have washed clean the landscape, filled the dam to overflowing, and created a myriad of streams to cross.

Friday Night

About 250 people filled the church on Christmas Eve. Through dance, music and light, the Lord Christ was welcomed into our innermost hearts.

Schedule

I have never seen more varieties of mushrooms fill the grassy slopes. Each one seems to bring a symbol to reflect upon (This one I call Nature's Chalice).

Plants are beginning to flower. Trees are bursting forth in color.

All nature seems to be rejoicing in the radiant dawn of a New Year. According to Pythagorean Numerology, 2011 is a four year, the number four signifying purposefulness. While this certainly can promise to be a year for getting things done, it also speaks to inviting God into all of our endeavors. This makes our actions more directed—more purposed.

Let us remind ourselves that all life contains a flame or Monad which is the Spirit of God Indwelling us. As the Christmas message says, follow this radiant star within you. There Christ will be functioning through you.

As this thought reaches the page, I look outside to see a beautiful rainbow touching down upon our driveway. What a wonderful symbol to share together as we move into the coming year—the full colors of God's Love, Wisdom, Courage and Ability blessing the road ahead.

New Year's Message 2011

"Bring Divine Peace into your efforts."

A New Year's Blessing

Excerpted from a message in 1975

by Flower A. Newhouse

We have entered into a New Year! It has not been touched as yet. We are at its threshold. We are the ones who sully the year through our negativities. We are the ones who wipe the slate clean by our decisions. Each of us is responsible for accepting the gift of this New Year in this outer world that we might use every day of it consciously, with integrity and with purposefulness.

Dear God in the highest, enable us to face this New Year with resolve, with courage and with faith. Cause us to really want the year to be better than any previous year has yet been in our efforts toward Thee and in Christ's Name, and for the sake of our beinghood and its advancement.

A New Year's Impetus

by Rev. Jonathan

Go Deep!
Find the still peaceful Presence within.

Cause us to to appreciate the building blocks that make us; all the circumstances, crises, the days that might seem routine but are composed of precious elements, were we open enough and in tune enough to see. We lift our lives to Thee! Oh, strike us that we may be Lighted for Thee!
