Passing Through

By Reverend Hal Lingeran

Inside rare moments of this planet's ticking time,

We leave our brief mosaic -

All deeds of blessing we have given in a gracious gifting of our life,

Will shine like priceless gems - bright inlays fitting into spaces

To fill dark holes with healing light.

Important Dates:
Lenten Classes begin on March 9

Learning from our earthly tracks and traces,

We will pass through the gateway on our journey, expanding in the Way.

Emerging from hectic, outgrown days and races,

Like radiant designs of stardust, we trickle into shape.

Friends and forgotten faces will appear, more welcome than before;

All those once remote and strange, now smiling free,

Are emerging as they long to be.

See them vibrant, re-shaping through their shifting strands,

Like shining souls approaching from some distant caravan.

Alive, they come, more transparent into view, filling us with amazed delight.

Blown bright by spirit winds, we now see and know them right.

Connecting through our souls, we are all fibers forming in a cosmic flow.

The Great Company of soul procession passes by: our pathway is so clear:

Moving in our dance together, we are all one humanity, uniting through the years.

Deep inside we recognize each other - all our pieces will fit and find their place.

A radiant Holiness spreads Its peace, gathering Its souls like precious stones.

Suddenly, in wonder we are all God's Light returning home.

And in the sacred mystery of our moments, the hidden Presence sees Its face.
