Man's Potential Divinity

by Lawrence Newhouse

Reflect Divine Light

Why is it that we who know the Truth, at least in theory, do not reflect more of the Divine Light which is latent within us? Why are we not able to walk serenely through life with our feet firmly on the ground but with heads in the sky? Why can we not silence the storm with a word, and heal disease with a thought?

Perhaps we are unwilling to pay the required price of complete renunciation and dedication. We may sense that present habits and modes of living must die before the birth of a new, spiritualized consciousness can take place. Are we so attached to our old habitation that we content ourselves with surface redecorating when the whole structure needs rebuilding?

Wise is the person who dedicates himself to the task of reconstruction. He eliminates old barriers that hinder the flow of the Divine Spirit from within. Thoughts of hate give way to love. Anxiety is replaced by faith. Feelings of limitation and fear are transmuted into new realizations of unlimited strength. His mind is centered in a positive oneness with the Potential Divinity within his own being. He enters an expanding zone of inspiration and joyous well-being. An unselfish urge motivates his efforts to serve God and his fellow man.

Begin to Live

When any man or woman discovers this secret dwelling place of the Most High within and begins to live from this higher level of consciousness, he feels that everything that has happened prior to this turning point was merely a prologue, because the real play of life is just beginning.

With increased awareness of the Divine Potential within, we become possessors of an unshakable faith in the actual Presence of God in the center of our beings. We awaken to the glorious realization that God's Love, Wisdom, Faith, and Power are available to us at all times because His Kingdom is within us.
