For the Mystical Journey with Christ

Dear Friends and Spiritual Family,

Have you not sensed the call that went out during Easter to rise higher? To me, it feels like a great inner gathering is taking place, and we are being called to do something special together, answering the call in new ways. The thought comes, Christ deserves our finest.

This call certainly is apparent in the number of new people who are discovering Questhaven. A familiar sharing is being heard—I feel like I have found my spiritual home. What a wonderful time for coming together!

We are finding our way to “give all that we can, with all that we have, in service of the Christ,” as Flower A.

felt completely mantled by the great Angels and Perfected Ones who sent Their blessing upon these two dedicated souls. I know Flower and many of the other dear ones who helped Questhaven grow to what it is today were rejoicing with us from the inner realms. But there was no greater power felt than when Christ brought through His anointing power to ordain these souls in His service forever.

Newhouse put it.

It gives me great pleasure to announce that two very deserving individuals who have long been faithful students of the Work here at Questhaven have received and accepted the call to serve our Lord as Ministers of The Christward Ministry—Lucy Wold and Miara Wiltshire. They were ordained on May 27, 2011 in the Church of the Holy Quest.

I cannot express how much joy seemed to resonate through these grounds inwardly and outwardly in celebration of this ceremony. We

The Reverend Miara Wiltshire

Miara Wiltshire was exposed to esoteric teaching from childhood but she always longed to know more about Jesus. Her desire led her to Questhaven in 1994 where she knew she had found the living Christ she was seeking and a familiar teaching that confirmed this was her spiritual home. Miara's background is in dance and dance therapy, having earned a BA in Dance and MA in Dance/Movement Therapy. She has worked professionally as a ballet and

And so may we all answer that call sent forth and rise higher in our thoughts—rise higher in our consciousness, that we may live worthy of our Lord's full blessing.

From the world of Light that knows no shadow, Peace to your efforts,
Reverend Blake Isaac

Thou hast touched me, and I have been transformed.

The Reverend Lucy Wold

Lucy Wold's spiritual search began as a small child in Indiana, with questions about the purpose of life.

When she first heard Flower speak at Questhaven in 1972, she finally received answers to her questions that rang true. Recognizing Flower's unique gifts as a Christian Mystic and clairvoyant, she began attending her talks and became a deep student of her work.

Lucy's life experiences have provided a strong foundation for her service to the Christ. Her higher education includes a BA in English modern dancer, a dance therapist in hospital settings, and now works at Mira Costa College as a certified Pilates instructor. New avenues of service opened up for Miara when she began living on the grounds at Questhaven, following her marriage to Jonathan in 2000.

Miara has become an ardent student of Flower's teachings and has given her heart to this work. Her love of Christ is revealed in her unassuming service and genuine caring for others. Miara has added great beauty to our retreats through her dance, and is a natural speaker at our Sunday services. She is also an advisor to the Board of Trustees and loving gardener around Questhaven's cottages and Friendship House.

"At the moment of ordination I realized that this is what I have wanted all of my life, but did not know it. I am so grateful to have taken this step and, with all of my heart, look forward to continuing my spiritual journey and serving our Lord as a Minister of the Christward Ministry."

Literature and Psychology and a Master's degree in Social Work. She taught elementary school, wrote educational film reviews and legal summaries, and served as a therapist at a counseling center. Rounding out her preparation, Lucy, along with her physician husband Richard, spent years focusing on the mind-body-spirit connection through an abiding interest in holistic health. Her passion for spiritual writing empowered her to write many of Questhaven's retreat plays and vignettes. Lucy is a Sunday service speaker, secretary of the Board of Trustees and a library volunteer. She helped plan and develop Questhaven's labyrinth and the Garden of Prayer next to Chapelito.

"My ordination ceremony and the taking of vows to become a minister at Questhaven in the service of our Lord Christ have brought me to a new, more deeply sacred place within. From this moment forward, Lord Christ, I seek to follow Thee and Thy Teachings and do Thy Will with ever increasing devotion and dedication."
