For the Mystical Journey with Christ

A Special Weekend Celebrating the Angels!

The Garden of Prayer

Michaelmas was so joyous at Questhaven with many, many stimulating conversations and experiences being shared. There was a real sense of community. A week later we are still feeling the wonderful reverberations of this high event in honor of the Angels.

As one individual commented, "I have always read, 'A mystery is something that can be experienced even if it cannot be explained.' From time to time one glimpses the mystery in a new way which is astounding and so real that it makes ordinary reality seem pale and insubstantial. It happened for me at Michaelmas on Friday evening. All involved in Michaelmas 2011 made this possible. Each part was done with great sincerity, love, and dignity."

One of the many blessings at Questhaven is hearing comments like this that help inspire each of us to rise in our devotion and reverence in order to deepen our spiritual efforts and what we offer Christ through this ministry. In an effort to continue the conversation and involve our online family, we are opening a site so that everyone will have the opportunity to contribute to this spiritual sharing. Feel free to add your own comments or read the many responses from those who were moved to share.

Angels and the Inner Side of Our Prayer Work

From the teachings of Flower A. Newhouse, we offer highlights from a presentation on the Friday night of our retreat. It features pray-ers from around the world offering their prayers for peace while Angelic hosts work to answer and guide those thought forms to the Garden of Prayer through a dance dramatization.

"No matter where in the world someone is praying. No matter the faith - no matter the race - our prayers are lifted, empowered, strengthened and even answered by God through these invisible hosts."

"Throughout this experience we are building bridges from our life on earth to those recently departed - through to the Angel Kingdom and Master Souls - onward to the One who is ultimately responsible for the spiritualizing of all life in this world - our Lord Emmanuel, the Living Christ, Lord of all religions, Lord of Angels and of man. And, as our Christ, He has earned our veneration and brings the supreme blessing of God to our prayers by adding His love to their unfolding."

On Sunday the retreat concluded with a wonderful service of music, dance and a beautiful message.

Thank you to all who gave so selflessly in the preparation of this holy event as well as to those who reverently came to receive it.

As Flower said, "So do all that you can to grow; be thankful you have a Guardian who watches you and loves you. Be thankful there are many who people space, who are always observant, watching not only you, but your children, and everything that moves where They are active."

"Oh dear Lord Christ, I thank Thee. I thank Thee for Thyself, for the insight to God that Thou hast given us, and for the wonderful Kingdom that Thou art head of—the Kingdom of the Shining Ones. God grant I may know this Kingdom too."
